

LO-FI PORTFOLIO SITE CONCEPTS

HOME

ONLINE STORE

ABOUT

CONTACT FORM

HOME

ONLINE STORE

ABOUT

CONTACT FORM

FAVORITE

ARTWORK LIST

1. Ligature Design Logos
2. T-Shirt Designs + Mockups
3. Tattoo Photos
4. FULANO! Band Design Assets

Must Have:

- Gallery
- Navigation
- Title
- Biography
- Photo of you
- Resume
- A contact form
- Footer

Should have:

- Social media links
- Animated transitions between portfolio pieces
- Color scheme/theme
- Testimonials

Nice to have:

- Logo
animated/rotating
- Online Store
- Video or GIF
background
- Pages Connected
Via Scrolling

Won't have:

- Clutter
- Over-complexity
- Plain White
Background

INSTRUCTIONS

Overview:

Create a portfolio website that showcases at least 3-5 pieces of your own artwork that you are most proud of.

The website must be responsive; it must look good on both a desktop computer and a mobile device.

Required Features:

- Gallery showcasing your work (and the ability to see each piece in both thumbnail and larger size)
- Navigation
- Title
- Biography
- Photo of you
- Resume
- A contact form
- Footer

LIST OF COMPETITORS

1. Sam Kaufman / East Fork Studios

“Since 2009, East Fork Studio has been creating visual solutions for entertainment industry clients. Primarily focusing on album artwork packaging & design, merchandise artwork & design, custom typography, and original photo illustrations.”

3. Rob Dobi

“Connecticut-based editorial illustrator, designer and photographer who works with a sense of wit and grit. Upon graduating with a BFA in illustration from RISD in 2003, Rob spent a decade designing merchandise for notable clients in the music industry, including Eminem, Blink-182, Green Day and Pearl Jam.”

2. Cassie Podish

“Virginia based illustrator/Designer with over 12 years of professional experience. I design everything from album covers, t-shirts, stage banners, poster, etc”

4. Brandon Stecz

“B. Stecz Designs is the independent creative venture of Brandon Stecz, specializing in merchandise design for the music & entertainment industries.”